

FIG WORKING WEEK 2012

May 6–10 2012
Rome, Italy

“Professionals for real estate market: challenges in practice and education”

Nadezda Kamynina

Russian Federation
Moscow State University of Geodesy and Cartography

Scope:

- growing number of property transactions
- lack of real estate agents possessing relevant and up-to-date skills
- real property transactions become more complex as well as frequently run across the national borders
- demand to adjust relevant education for the future needs of the practice

Rome, May 2012

2

Introduction:

Identification of correspondence between existing practice and university training of real estate market's professional in Russia

Rome, May 2012

3

Skills:

- land management
 - surveying (measurements)
 - transfer of rights
 - title registration
- maintenance of the land information system

Rome, May 2012

4

Background	Private companies	State authorities
Law	24 %	26 %
Engineering	7.5 %	32 %
Cadastre	12 %	13 %
Economy	11,5 %	8 %
Other	9 %	19%
None	36 %	2 %

Rome, May 2012

5

Strategic goals:

Capacity building of existing and future curriculum in line with:

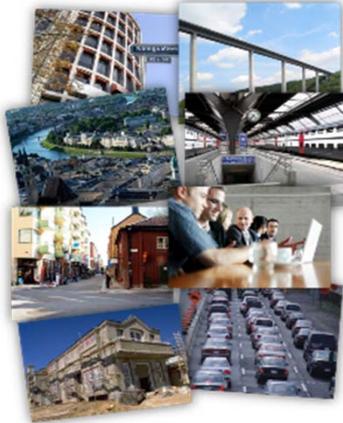

- UN Lifelong learning strategy
- ICT assisted curriculum
- e-learning
- constant survey of existing demand and shape of competences

Rome, May 2012

6

Existing profiles:

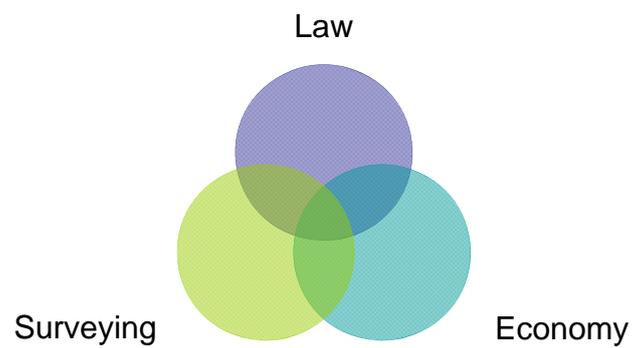

- cadastral engineer
 - law
 - economy
 - surveying
 - cartography

Rome, May 2012

7

Professional basis:

Rome, May 2012

8

Academic content:

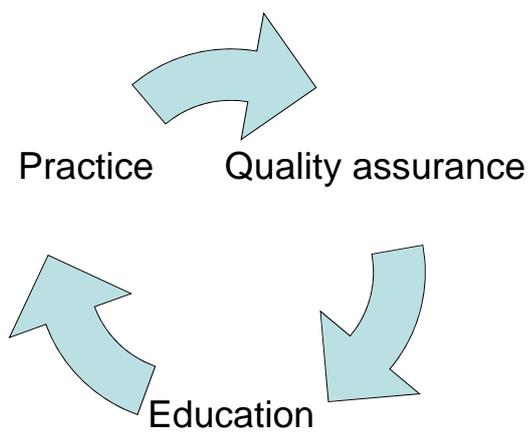

- Based on competences
- Practical placement
- Interactive education

Rome, May 2012

9

Needs analysis:

Rome, May 2012

10

Professional education:

Rome, May 2012

11

Follow up:

- Development and tuning of the new academic profile:

Real estate administration

Rome, May 2012

12

Operational capacity:

- Integration with EU and UN academic programmes
- Interaction with state authorities
- Capacity building of professional community

Rome, May 2012

13

Thank You for Your attention